

|            |                                                                   |
|------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| S_No_      | 102                                                               |
| Vernacular | हेताल                                                             |
| Scientific | Phoenix paludosa                                                  |
| Family     | Arecaceae                                                         |
| Remarks_   | तटीय क्षेत्रों में छत और रस्सी (Thatch and rope in coastal areas) |
| Latitude   | 23.3571                                                           |
| Longitude  | 85.2441                                                           |
| Plant_Orig | Native                                                            |

Mangrove Date Palm

Phoenix paludosa, Roxb.

F- Arecaceae

Phoenix paludosa is a medium size tree with multiple trunks. The leaves are 2-3 m long like other palm. Commonly known as mangrove date palm. Mainly found in coastal region of India, Bangladesh, Vietnam. Malaysia and Thailand. Fruits are edible like other date palm. One of the Important habitats for tiger at Sundarbans forest.