

S_No_	118
Vernacular	तनिवा बांस
Scientific	Schizostachyum pergracile
Family	Poaceae
Remarks_	उच्च श्रेणी के कागज के लिए (For high-grade paper)
Latitude	23.3568
Longitude	85.2442
Plant_Orig	Native

Tinwa Bamboo	Schizostachyum pergracile (Munro) R.B.Majumdar	F- Poaceae
Schizostachyum. pergracile is a beautiful medium sized clumping bamboo native to India and Indo-China. It grows up to 10-15 m with 50-75 mm diameter. Commonly known as Tinwa Bamboo. Bamboo sheaths are attached with clump for long time with orange colour and hairy. Widely used for construction and cooking rice, fishing rods, handicrafts and paper and pulp industries. If it is produced flowers sporadically does not produce viable seed, if produce gregarious flower then produce viable seed in the interval of 7-15 years.		