

S_No_	138
Vernacular	पुतली / नागादंती
Scientific	Croton longifolius
Family	Euphorbiaceae
Remarks_	लविर और बुखार के लएि (For liver and fever)
Latitude	23.3557
Longitude	85.2441
Plant_Orig

Ghansura

Croton oblongifolius* Roxb.

F- Euphorbiaceae

Croton oblongifolius is a small to medium sized deciduous tree mostly found in natural forest of Jharkhand. The bark is light brown in colour with dark brown patches. The leaves are simple, crowded towards the end of the branchlets, oblong and lanceolate with dotted margin. The flowers are yellowish green in colour developed exiles of minute bracts in racemose. The seeds are round in shape with 3-10 bead. The root and seeds are used as a medicine purpose in different diseases.