

|            |                                                |
|------------|------------------------------------------------|
| S_No_      | 17                                             |
| Vernacular | सुबबूल (Subabul)                               |
| Scientific | Leucaena leucocephala                          |
| Family     | Mimosaceae                                     |
| Remarks_   | ईंधन और चारे के लिए (Used for fuel and fodder) |
| Latitude   | 23.3575                                        |
| Longitude  | 85.2442                                        |
| Plant_Orig | Exotic                                         |

Wild Tamarind

Leucaena leucocephala (L.) de Wit

F- Mimosaceae

Medium size deciduous tree with smooth brown bark. The leaves are twice –feathered having 4-9 pair of side stalk with 4-9 pair of leaflets facing each other It inflorescence is a cream coloured puff with many stamens. Pods are flat and straight contain between 15-20 seeds. It is fast growing and highly regeneration characters. During 1970-80 it was promoted as a “Miracle tree” for its multiple uses. It pods hang on the tree for long time after dispersed of seeds. The tree commonly known as protein bank. Widely planted for fast greenery, fodder, and fuel wood.