

S_No_	18
Vernacular	अमरूद (Guava)
Scientific	Psidium guajava
Family	Myrtaceae
Remarks_	वटिमनि-सी का समृद्ध स्रोत (Rich source of Vitamin-C)
Latitude	23.3575
Longitude	85.2442
Plant_Orig	Exotic

Guava	Psidium guajava L.	F- Myrtaceae
Small to medium size tree with radish bark peeling of with papery outer bark and exposed white colour under bark. Leaves are dark green in colour broad at the base and pointed at the apex with rough feeling. White colour flowers are appearing on the branch. The fruits are different shape, size and pulp are mainly white and pink. Allahabad Safeda, Lukhnow- 49, Arka Mridula, Chittidar, Khajapant prabhat. VNR Bihi is one of the biggest Guava in India developed by VNR- a private research organization in Chattisgarh. ICAR New Delhi has bred two new guava hybrids namely Pusa Aarushi and Pusa Pratiksha. Mostly cultivated for its tasty fruits. Its fruits are rich in Vitamin C. Fruits are used as a raw and used for making jam, jelly juice etc.		