

S_No_	200
Vernacular	डेवलि फगि (Devil Fig)
Scientific	Ficus hispida
Family	Moraceae
Remarks_	औषधीय गुण (Medicinal value)
Latitude	23.3572
Longitude	85.2437
Plant_Orig	Native

Broom bamboo

Thysanolaena latifolia* (Roxb. Ex Hornem.) Honda

F- Poaceae

Thysanolaena latifolia commonly known as broom bamboo, tiger grass, Nepalese broom grass and broom stick. It is called jaruin Assamese and phool jharu in Hindi. It’s found in steep hill or sandy banks of rivers. Its harvested in the month of January to march. It is also grown as an ornamental plant. Another use of this species are leaves provide green forage for livestock. Its roots provide soil conservation to protect soil erosion.