

S_No_	69
Vernacular	बहेड़ा (Baheda)
Scientific	Terminalia bellirica
Family	Combretaceae
Remarks_	त्रिफला के निर्माण में प्रयुक्त (Used in making Triphala)
Latitude	23.3585
Longitude	85.246
Plant_Orig	Native

Bastard/Bellaric Myrobalan

Terminalia bellirica* (Gaertn.)Roxb.

F- Combretaceae

Terminalia bellirica is commonly known as bahera, baheda and bastard myrobalan. Large deciduous tree with ashy bark with fissures. Oval leaves emerge in deep red colour turn green when matured, tapering at the base and blunt at apex. Greenish yellow flower star shape with nauseating scent. Oval shape fruits with velvety cover. One of the important ingredients of “Ayurvedic Triphala churna” Fruits are use is number of medicinal purposed. Naturally available in the forest. It is also used for high cholesterol and digestive disorders. It is also used for making murabba.