

S_No_	70
Vernacular	इमली (Tamarind)
Scientific	Tamarindus indica
Family	Caesalpiniacea
Remarks_	भोजन में प्रयुक्त खट्टे फल (Sour fruits used in food)
Latitude	23.3585
Longitude	85.2461
Plant_Orig	Exotic

Tamarind

Tamarindus indica L.

F-Caesalpiniacea

Tamarind is long lived medium size tree with dark brown bark. Evergreen leaves are alternately arranged and pinnately lobed. Red and yellow small size flower with five petal’s The fruits are long flat having fleshy acidic pulp and pressed in between. Fruits are dull green initially turn light brown when ripe. Fruits pulp is very popular in south India. They daily used in different recipes. Fruit is sweet and sour in taste, so its use for making Rasam, Chutny, Toffee, Golgappa, Idali and Dosa. It’s also played an important role in treatment of constipation, fever, wound etc. It contains fibre, magnesium, calcium and rich in antioxidants properties. Sweet tamarind is also available in the market.

